When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

(To the "Nacion.")

London, 21st.—Parliament will be dissolved on Tuesday next. The electoral propaganda is assuming extraordinary proportions. The leaders on both sides are preparing for their electoral tours.

Argentine securities are falling again owing to timid holders availing of the recent rise to sell out. The Times contradicts the telegrams to the Standard in reference to the reduction of interest on the foreign debt.

Berlin, 21st.—The King and Queen of Italy have received a most cordial reception.

Rome 21st.—The Senate has thrown out the Bill passed by the Lower House granting provisionally the six months' supplies for 1892-1893 asked by the Government. This has caused general astonishment in political circles. The Cabinet will now insist on resigning when King Humbert returns from Berlin. The papers all agree that the situation is most serious. If the King accept the resignation of the Cabinet, it is thought he will ask Crispi or Zanardelli to form a new one.

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 21st.—Gladstone says that if he return to power he will not revoke the acceptance by the present Government of the invitation to the International Monetary Conference, as it is necessary to discuss the matter in the interest of all countries.

Mr. O'Connor, in his place in the Commons, asked the Secretary for War what authority the Ulster men had for saying that Lord Wolseley would lead them in a civil war. The Minister left the question unanswered.

The Prince of Wales and the Duke of York, his son, have paid a private visit to the Agricultural Exhibition at Warwick. The Queen and the Prince are the principal exhibitors.

The Telegraph, commenting on the transfer to the United States register of British steamers, expresses a hope that the Admiralty will not allow the Atlantic greyhounds to escape from its hands.

Mr. John Morley says that Home Rule for Ireland is the war cry of the Liberal party.

The command of the twin-screw cruiser Melampas will be given to Prince George.

There was a serious riot at a politimeeting in Tralee. Many were wounded and several arrested.

New York, 21st.—Bar silver in London 40⅞ pence.

Berlin, 21st.—Bismarck has received an enthusiastic reception everywhere in Austria, but it has no connection with politics, and is merely personal.

The re-organization of the army will add 63,000 men to it in time of peace, at a cost of sixty millions of marks.

Chicago, 21st.—Owens of Kentucky has been elected provisional President of the Democratic Convention. This is a first defeat for Cleveland.

The Convention passed a vote of condolence with Blaine in his recent affliction.

Vienna, 21st.—Count Herbert Bismarck was married this morning. The Prince was carried in triumph through the streets.

Paris, 21st.—The papers are disgusted at King Humbert's visit to Berlin.

Cholera is spreading in the suburbs.

Athens, 21st—The Cabinet has resigned.

Brest, 21st.—During the trial trip yesterday of the new cruiser Dupuy de Lome, a boiler burst, killing fifteen men and fatally injuring many more.

Paris, 21st.—Ravachol is to be tried for five murders.

THE BALANCE OF TRADE.

During the last fifteen days our columns have been open to the discussion on this subject, with little other result than to shew that Pres. Pellegrini's theories are not shared by the majority of persons who have entered into the polemic. Meantime the real points at issue have been lost sight of. Pres. Pellegrini stands up manfully for the Mercantile Theory of the 17th century, which resolves itself thus:—

1st The excess of exports is so much gain to a country; the excess of imports so much loss.

2nd The difference is settled directly or indirectly by bullion, or by payment of obligations.

3rd It is desirable to check imports and to stimulate exports by all means possible.

The above are, in brief, the Balance-of-trade theories, which Adam Smith says "have caused more misery and suffering to mankind than war or pestilence."

We need not recapitulate what we said about Pres. Pellegrini's 36,000,000 gold dollars, which were purely imaginary; so much so that His Excellency confesses that he had to make use of 15,000,000$ gold the balance in London of the Morgan loan.

If theories were in all cases correct Dr. Pellegrini would have something to stand on, as it does appear most reasonable that if a country exports more than it imports it ought to grow richer. Unfortunately Sicily, Sardinia and the Falkland Islands have had for many years a large excess of exports, but are not a dollar the richer. On the other hand Belgium (without colonies, foreign investments or shipping) has a prodigious balance of trade against her, which nobody of the Pellegrini school can attempt to explain.

In conclusion, and in opposition to the pestilential and damnable theories of the Pellegrini school we affirm, with the experience of more than 100 years since Adam Smith's time, and the concurrent opinion of all economists in all countries:—

1st That excess of exports or imports means neither gain nor loss.

2nd That import and export trade should be left, like water, to find their level.

3rd That there is, of course, a balance of trade between nations, but that it may be very different from the absurd valuations that Argentina, Spain and other countries put on imports.

4th That it does not follow, and rarely if ever happens, that the actual surplus of exports or imports is discharged in bullion.

5th That bullion or money in any form is not wealth, but has the same relation to wealth as railway-trucks have to merchandize.

Until Argentines come to understand the difference between money (whether metallic or paper) and wealth there is no hope of driving the Mercantile Theory out of their heads.

SANTA FE GRAIN-TAX.

It is high time for President Pellegrini or the Supreme Federal Court to put a stop to the piratical proceedings of the Santa Fe authorities. The Federal Court has already declared the notorious grain-tax to be illegal, but the Government of Santa Fe proceeds with a high hand, as if the Federal Tribunal had no jurisdiction in that province. It would be more rational for the Argentine Congress to declare Santa Fe an independent republic than to allow these piratical acts to be committed with impunity.

An idea of the abuses to which this illegal and abnoxious tax has given rise, will be gathered from the following letter published by a contemporary:—

Dear Sir,

We have just received the following telegram from the manager of our grain-depot at Arequito, Oeste Santofecino Railway:—

Arequito, June 14th.

During my absence, the grain-tax auctioneer accompanied by the police burst open the doors of the depot and took out a quantity of grain.

Jose Parera.

LATER—The auctioneer took out 354 bags of grain. He will take out more to-morrow. In the meantime he refuses to allow me to protest. I am appealing to the Juzgado.—Jose Parera.

The foregoing needs a little explanation. When the lessees or farmers of the tax began their collection-campaign, one of them called upon us and offered for a given amount to give us a receipt for the tax. We replied that according to our lawyer's opinion, neither the provincial government nor, 'a fortiori,' private parties could levy a tax on exports, only the National Government having the power to do so; that we should deposit the amount of the tax claimed in the hands of the Judge until the question of the legality of the tax be settled. The consequence was that the safe of our representatives in Santa Fe, Messrs. Escuña and Co., was embargoed. These gentlemen had already deposited the amount of the tax in the hands of the Judge.

Now, Sir, you see the result. A private party with the assistance of the police breaks open our depot at Arequito and takes out grain, and we cannot even protest. It is, indeed, sad that such things can still happen in the Republic, and it is just as well the public should know it, although the reputation of the country must suffer.

Yours obediently,
Bunge & Born.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

GOVERNMENT CLEARING OUT.

SEASON COME-

(From our own Correspondent.)

May 20th.

A cabinet council was held this afternoon, and although the date of the dissolution of Parliament is not fixed, it is generally understood that the elections will take place in July. The Government and opposition whips are already collecting the fund for gratuities to the police who attend the House of Commons. This fund is usually collected towards the end of the session after Whitsuntide. Mr. Balfour, to keep faith with the letter if not the spirit of his promises, has introduced his Local Government (Ireland) Bill, but not in a way as if he hoped or intended it to pass. In the absence of Mr. McCarthy, the bill was opposed formally by Mr. Sexton in a speech so full of humour and at the same time so cruelly critical that the House became quite animated, although when Mr. Saxton rose it was thin and lifeless and the Hon. member himself seemed oppressed by the general dulness. Following Mr. Sexton the Pall Mall Gazette describes the measure as "a Stone and Snail Additional Powers Bill" in allusion to the many safeguards introduced into it limiting, as Mr. Sexton said the powers of Irish County Councils to breaking stones and destroying insects, and even with the further limitation that if expenditure is necessary for such purposes the councils must apply to standing joint committees formed of landlords and under the thumb of Lord Lieutenants. The Tory Bill is so glaringly insincere and so insulting to the Irish people that even a picture-paper, the Daily Graphic, generally disposed to humour the prejudices of English middle and upper class snobbery and political ignorance, ridicules it and asks "if the Irish people are to be trusted with the management of their own local affairs, or are they not? If not, then the Bill is a mistake. If they are, it is an insult." It is a hopeful "end of the century" as well as end of the Tory Government sign, that what the Daily Graphic expresses is almost the unanimous opinion. Only the Times seriously defends the Bill. That journal, however, did not dare to defend Lord Salibury's fair-trade heresies, and the interesting speculation arises—is Lord Salisbury weary of his alliance with the Liberal Unionists, and are they prepared to follow him in his real views? Views that are known to incline towards protection, coercion, militarism and absolutism on the German pattern, but all in a mild form, suited to the Liberal, commercial and monarchical traditions of this vast empire, etc., etc. It is quite possible that before or during the elections a rift may disclose itself in the Tory and Liberal Union alliance. It is even doubtful if Mr. Balfour, were his position in the ministry less tentative, dependant and ornamental, would of his own will transfer his uncle's known prejudices into the Local Government (Ireland) Bill which with almost ostentatious contempt he laid on the table of the House of Commons. Mr. Balfour and his uncle appear to agree outwardly in one point that neither of them seem to see what people want with legislation at all? But the motives of the two men are distinct. Lord Salisbury is something of a politician; and his opinion of legislation is like Lord Beaconsfield's notion of foreign policy, that it is a question only for the consideration of monarchs and statesmen.

Mr. Balfour is not a politician. He is something of a philosopher. His pessimism leads him to that particular form of anarchical opinions common in the social world to the English "dude," who affects to see nothing in anything, and speaks of the "spangled firmament on high" as "all that; dontcher know." Mr. Balfour is a politico-philosophic Oscar Wilde, whose affections are now being parodied to the intense amusement of London in "The Poet and his Puppets" at the Comedy Theatre. Mr. Wilde had the audacity to write a play "Lady Windermere's Fan"; and worse still the play succeeded. His brother playwrights, who look upon him as an amateur and "not one of us," do not forget it and jealously lampoon and persecute the audacious swell. Mr. Oscar Wilde, dressed in his velvet coat, knee breeches and silk stockings, probably goes to the Comedy Theatre to see himself, his features—what there is of them—his manner, sayings and costume faithfully reproduced on the stage; and reads the joyous remarks of the newspaper critics on the excellence of the parody. Perhaps he thinks these gentlemen write less in the interests of the dramatic art than in the interests of the managers of the London theatres. He might be vain enough to console himself with the idea that after all he must be somebody to be reproduced on the stage, and wicked enough to remember that his critics, some of them, are from the far off provinces and of humble origin and are welcome as far as he is concerned to the novelty of evening dress and managerial chicken and champagne suppers.

The opera has opened brilliantly with Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" with Madame Calvé in the principal role and with better chorus, scenery and orchestra than at the Shaftesbury last year. Mascagni's opera has fairly taken its place amongst the works that come to stay. Verdi compliments him on his music and on the idea of a one act opera as a protest against the old wearisome five acts of scenes and arias, and what the veteran composer is now pleased to allude to as "tra la la."

Ibsen's "Doll's House" still runs at the Avenue, "Hamlet" at the Haymarket and "Henry VIII" at the Lyceum. Mr. Irving's next revival is to be "King Lear." In the parks the chesnuts are in full blossom, and the little rain we have had in the last day or two has freshened the air and the flowers, and made the leafy "row" a scene of enchantment. Northumberland Avenue resounds at the witching dinner hour of 7 p.m. with the horns of the coaches and four returning from Dorking, Windsor, St. Albans and other suburban retreats. The season and the summer have returned once more, brightly and balmily. The place reeks of gold, but withal there is little doing in the city. The Baring incubus is still over us. Cholera nostras is in Paris. Asiatic cholera is on its way to the Levant.

In reference to the paragraph I sent you last night in regard to the Manchester ship canal, the same paper from which it was taken contains to-night the following correction—that looks like a corroboration.

"With reference to a statement which appeared in some of our editions yesterday as to the amount required for the completion of the works, we are authoritatively informed that there is "no foundation whatever" for stating that amount at three millions Within a few days contracts will be let for two sections of the canal, and an announcement will be made immediately afterwards as to the precise amount which will be required for the completion of the works."

You will know as much as we do by telegram of floods in the United States and of the hurricane at Mauritius, resulting in the loss of 1200 lives and a frightful destruction of property. Let us thankfully sing to the praise of our own blessings, fogs, east winds, sunless skies, unripe fruit and summers of three days and a thunderstorm.

An adjourned meeting has been held in the Court of Bankruptcy. Captain England recently returned to England from Buenos Ayres, where he stated he had been engaged for some months in connection with a proposed purchase of Ormonde. He retired from the 14th Hussars in 1867 with the rank of Captain, and received about £7,000. Since 1888 he has had occasional dealings in the purchase and sale of race horses on commission, and otherwise in this country and at Buenos Ayres. On returning to England, he brought with him two horses, one belonging to Señor Don Juan H. Boadicea, and the other Humewood, belonging to his son, Mr. Russell W. H. England of Buenos Ayres. On arriving at Southampton, the horses together with his personal luggage were seized under an execution at the suit of Messrs. Lamport and Holt of Liverpool, and an inter-pleader issue with reference to the title to the horses is now pending. In 1889 he bought Humewood from Captain Machell for £2,000, and has given it to his son in whose name it was registered in the books of the Argentine Jockey Club. It was found that the horse could not be utilised us intended, and he had with the consent of his son brought it back to this country.

Owing to the suicide of Mr. Hume Webster from whom the debtor had expected to receive a considerable sum of money, he was not in a position to make a proposal as he had hoped to do to his creditors. Humewood was a very valuable animal and might realise £2,000 to £3,000, so that there would probably be a large sum available by consent of the debtor's son for the creditors. A trustee and committee of inspection were appionted.—Pall Mall Gazette.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Our La Plata exchanges contain two important sentences delivered by Judge Aurrecoehea in reference to the paying of mortgages. Our readers may remember that some time ago we gave the particulars of a suit brought by Mr Paez against the Mortgage Bank of the Province, which refused to accept its own 'bonos' in payment of a mortgage. This is precisely one of the cases which the Judge has now decided. As the decision is of great importance, we summarise as follows his lordship's considerands:—(1) Considering that Mr Gervasio Paez, in November last, presented himself at the Provincial Mortgage Bank to pay a mortgage. (2) That this mortgage was for $200,302, in Cedulas, Series O, the service on which summed up $42,353. (3.) That be desired to pay the principal in accordance with the law of April 18, 1891, and the interest in accordance with the law of July 14, 1891, the Bank refusing to receive the form of payment for the last quarter due, and Mr. Paez raising a protest: (4.) That the interpretation given by the Bank to the law is inadmissible in reference to service overdue, since the charter of the Bank sets forth that the quarters must be paid in advance from the first to the 15th of the first month, and since the payment in question was made in September instead of from the 1st to the 15th July, the service was overdue; (5) that the Board of the Bank acknowledged that Mr. Paez was correct in his statements, the only difference being as to the interpretation of the word overdue.

(6) The duty of the Court is therefore to decide as to the interpretation of the word overdue. (7) That Art. of the law of July 14, 1891 runs as follows:—"Art. 14—In the case of the payment of the hypothecary obligation, the Bank shall receive the amount of the overdue service in cedulas, coupons and cheques of the Provincial Bank for their nominal value." The word overdue is not here defined; (8) That the Bank maintains that Paez must make the payment in accordance with the Bank's Charter, which has evidently not been modified by the law in question, and this Court cannot draw a distinction where the law has made none—"ubi lex non distinguit, non distinguere debemus"; (9) That according to the charter of the Bank, the payment made by Paez in September should have been made within the first fifteen days of July, the service being consequently overdue. I, therefore, declare that Mr. Paez is in the right and I hereby order the Bank to receive the amount deposited by him in the Provincial Bank to cover the payment in question.

The Judge also decided a similar case brought by Mr. Octavio Gonzalez against the Bank.

BALANCE OF TRADE.

Mr. Editor:

As in R. B. M. I have found a courteous adversary, I will venture to point out to him that he has no authority fo his statement in to-day's issue that I have asserted that imports and exports "can be manipulated by artificial means for a beneficial result." What I did say in my letter of June 14 was literally as follows:—"All that modern (commercial) system can do is to act on a current that already exists, to artificially and temporarily check or promote imports or exports of bullion," and the whole paragraph had reference merely to payments in bullion.

R. B M. will conseqaently see that my contention has not the scope he gives it when he implies that I refer to imports and exports in general, and furthermore that I have merely stated a fact, but without in any way implying whether such facts are beneficial or otherwise.

If R. B. M. cares to look at my former letter, I think he will find that in no case have I expressed an opinion as to whether the facts I maintain are advantageous to any given country or not.

My only object in entering into this discussion has been to uphold a theory than can be scientifically demonstrated, and no side issues have tempted me to recommend any particular mode of practising that theory.

I have asserted that a given trade result has a given effect on the economic situation of this country, but I have said no word that can warrant the belief that I uphold any given way of producing such result.

E.

Sir,

I have read with much interest all the articles regarding the above, and I must say I am as wise as when I started, as no one has explained to me "why by importing articles a country gains."

Take, for instance, champagne (how many profits are there—the grower, the manufacturer, the dealer, the shipper, etc.), which is drunk here, and we have to pay all these people their profits, and therefore, to my way of reasoning, every drop of imported liquor drunk in this country is so much loss.

Take, for instance, a man: his export is his salary, his import is what he spends. If his imports are greater than his "exports," how can he become rich?

I am very ignorant on this subject, so I let my thoughts out, so as if I am wrong some kind subscriber will put me right.

Ignorant.

BRITISH HOSPITAL BAZAAR.

This Bazaar was opened last night by His Excellency the President of the Republic, accompanied by his distinguished consort, Señor Ernesto Madero and other Argentine ladies and gentlemen.

The President, who arrived punctually at 8 o'clock, was received by the Committee and a naval guard of honour from H. M. S. Magpie and U. S. S. Bennington.

The appearance of the staircase as seen from the street at this moment was imposing, owing to the taste of the decorations and the distinguished appearance of the guests. The grand staircase was upholstered in colours of the flags of the two nations — red, white and blue.

As the President entered the magnificent saloon of Mr. Duran the band, under the direction of Mr. Ismael, played the first bars of the Argentine Hymn, followed by the well-known strains of "God save the Queen" and "The Star-spangled Banner."

The President, in a few cordial and well-chosen words, declared the Bazaar open. Hard it would be to describe the effect of the Hall at this moment; the Stalls, designed and painted with great artistic skill by the scenic artists of the San Martin Theatre, were loaded with bright and elegant goods, whose variegated colours shewed to the greatest advantage under the Electric Light.

Time before going to press will not allow us to go into details. We may, however, mention the effect produced as the eye wandered from the snow-covered roof of the Highland house, with its bright interior and charming occupants in national costume, to the summer pavilion of far Japan; from the Irish cottage with its treasures in lace to the Old Providence House, a model in miniature of that in Chester which escaped the plague in the year 1666, hence the quaint inscription over the door.

Shouts of children attract our attention to the Toy Stall, which appears to be embodied in four enormous owls. The Moorish appearance of the Tricolor stall with its oriental treasures in proximity to Vanity Fair translates one in a moment from Algeria to the Burlington Arcade.

A few paces distant we live in the Sixteenth Century, as we contemplate Ye Foreigne and Domestic Shoppe.

The Flower Stall with its harmonious arrangement of green and yellow as a background to the flowers, and the munificent donation from the favoured residential suburb of Quilmes call for special notice.

"Ye Leather Bottel" with its creature comforts, its Deutz and Gelderman champagne, 1884, speaks for itself.

Would that time permitted us to attempt to do justice to the dresses of the ladies—they must be seen.

Arriving at the South end of the saloon we find a perfect little theatre with its appurtenances, well lighted and without draughts—Don Roberto Cano, please take note. We sit one moment touched to the heart by the thrilling notes of the most talented of our musical amateurs, at another moment holding our sides in consequence of the antics of the low comedians.

Shooting galleries, grottoes, "petites cheveaux," lucky bags, itinerant and charming bouquet sellers, the whole to the strains of Ismael's Band, make us forget for one moment our petty and every day troubles and anxieties.

In conclusion, the opening night of the Bazaar was a brilliant success, both socially and financially; and it is a source of satisfaction to our editorial mind that the inhabitants of Buenos Ayres have again shewn their zeal in charity's sweet cause.

SANITARY-SANITORIUM.

One cannot but feel the keenest pleasure at the superb and beautiful preparations that have been made in the handsome and commodious hall of Sr. Duran, corner Piedad and Artes, by the combined Committees of Ladies and Gentlemen in aid of the British Hospital Fund, and certainly the generous and liberal-minded proprietor should be made to feel that his fortune and peace of mind is assured for the balance of his natural life.

Faith, Hope and Charity, and the greatest of all is charity, that vaunteth not, and is not as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

Charity, that covers all things with her broad mantle, and such a charity as the British Hospital deserves the hearty support and co-operation of all the citizens of Buenos Ayres irrespective of nationalities, as it extends alike its protecting arms to all in sickness or accidental injuries.

The Fair is well worth a visit, owing to the exquisite taste displayed in the Stalls, and the bright and winsome faces of the Ladies in attendance attired in costumes that cannot but add to their natural charms.

A Fairy Dell, brilliantly lighted by Fairy Incandescent Lamps, touched by the wand of the great health-giver—Electricity—and thy hand crossed by a bewitching Fortune Teller, gives thee health and happiness the balance of the year. What young man or young woman dare resist the charm and read upon the face of the magic mirror their fates.

To crown all, a gem of a theatre is in the hall, capable of seating 200 persons, beautifully and tastefully decorated, and attractions of all kinds will be presented; and who knows but that some of the great prima donnas in our midst will add their silvery notes to the mass of paper that will be taken at the door.

The stage is a gem and the scenic appointments in keeping. Edison's Electric Light reigns over all and casts its health-giving and refulgent rays upon the scene.

So now that hard times have passed away for ever from the beautiful city of Buenos Ayres, and, we read it in the happy and bright faces we see around us in the streets and elsewhere, this great community will arouse itself and help these brave souls to swell the Hospital Fund to $50,000 or more.

So welcome all, and remember the evenings June 22nd, 23rd and 24th at Duran's Hall, Calle Piedad corner Artes; entrance Piedad.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

No English-speaking person in town talked or thought of anything yesterday except the opening of the British Hospital Fancy Fair at night. We had a hasty glance at the dazzling hall of light just before going to press, and all we can say, until to-morrow, is that it looked lovely, and the ladies still lovelier as they drew the shinplasters from the pockets of the other sex, in charity's cause. Ismael's band was grand. Our special has a full report in another colmnn.

There is a letter in this office for Mr. Barnes, organist of St. John's Church.

The news from Rio Grande last night was serious, and it is feared the whole province, if not the whole country, will soon be in a blaze. The telegraph wires are either cut or held by either of the contending factions; so the news must be taken with more than a grain of salt. The curious feature of this latest Brazilian revolution is that the Government at Rio started it and is supporting it.

L'Ami Fritz to-night at the Politeama. There will be a rib-crushing audience.

The death rate of the city is still abnormally high. Yesterday fifty nine secessions to the majority were registered, of which ten were caused by influenza, 5 by chest disease and 3 by bronchitis.

The Lord Mayor has decided to throw up all the boxes in the theatres hitherto reserved for the Municipality. The City Papas and employes won't relish this.

Dr. Alem and other Radical leaders are expected here this morning from Montevideo.

Our newest and most illustrious subscriber, Prince Bismarck, is again the idol of all Germany. It could not be otherwise. STANDARD luck began for him the moment his name was inscribed in our books.

Our Brazilian friends are learning to fight. It now appears that in the recent scuffle in Rio Grande twenty were killed and thirty wounded.

Our unfortunate B. O. friends have at last arrived at the edge of the shinplaster "pantano", and into it they must go. On Tuesday there was a private meeting of Senators and Deputies to consider an issue of paper money. The market only asks that Government let leave it to itself and cease thinking of banks and financial projects. Things are so bad that people absolutely wish that that amiable and defunct gentleman Santos were still in the flesh and in power, as he never meddled with finance, being far too astute for that.

The first and second and penultimate and last pages of our new Handbook are now open for advertizing bidders; and we lay the flattering unction to our soul that there will be rousing competition for them.

There was an amusing printer's error in one of our British contemporaries at Montevideo the other day, which was made to say, in reference to Bishop Stirling's visit that "his Lordship would be pleased to see 'any of the residents who may deserve to call.' Of course the world should have been desire." By the way, our two esteemed contemporaries referred to seem to be very bad friends, and use strongly sarcastic adjectives when referring to each other, which they do once a week, one of them being a weekly.

The British Hospital Bazaar Committee got a very generous present yesterday from Mr. Thomas Wood, the well-known importer of machinery and shipping articles, a fine pony. No doubt, the Committee will raffle it and add a good round sum to the receipts from the Fancy Fair.

We thank Mr. J. Timmis, President of the British Social Association, for his kind invitation to its first Assembly, which will be held in the La France Hall in Calle Suipacha on the 8th prox. Tickets $4 each.

As our Packet Edition for the Oreuoque ran short under the great demand, we intend to print extra copies of our next Weekly Edition, which will be on sale on Saturday morning.

Here is a tit bit for our railway friends, from a New York paper. Mr. Sinclair must have had hard work to hold his hair on his head, to say nothing of his hat, while flying through the air at such truly terrific speed:—"An important engineering test was made yesterday on Locomotive No. 870, running the Empire State Express on the New York Central Railroad. The work was done by Angus Sinclair, Editor of "Locomotive Engineering." He sat in a box in front of the engine cylinder and took steam indicator diagrams all the way between New York and Albany. A speed of seventy-eight miles an hour was recorded, and the engine developed over 1,000 horse-power. The work of pulling the train was done on a coal consumption of 2¼ pounds of coal for each horse-power an hour."

General Bartolomé Mitre will be 71 years of age next Sunday, and we sincerely wish the illustrious Argentine many happy returns of the day. The Law Students are organizing a manifestation to the distinguished statesman and litterateur.

"Should a man shave up or down?" asked a youthful city clerk, fresh from school. "That depends. When I shave you, for instance, I always shave down," replied the barber, with emphasis on the last word.

The influenza epidemic in Montevideo has carried off a well-known character there, the veteran Captain Juan Hegoburo, who figured in the defence of Montevideo early in the century. He was lately proprietor of a small bathing establishment in Calle Canelones. He was French by birth, but had lived in B. Oriental for seventy years, having come over when he was four years old.

It may not be generally known that it was that outrageous profligate Louis the Fifteenth of France who gave the name of "grippe" to the epidemic now raging in this city. In the months of February and March, 1743, there was a prevalence of colds and inflammation of the chest at Versailles and Paris. The King named this malady "la grippe." It was observed that bleeding was wholly discarded. Such persons as had not been bled, and who drank much, were the most quickly cured. No doubt, this is why Dry Champagne, Influenza brandy and assafetida cocktails are, after the lapse of a century and a half, still such popular remedies for the complaint.

The Prensa has started an office in Flores, at No. 7390 Calle Rivadavia, in the establishment of Messrs. Giro and Escala, who will receive advertizements and subscriptions, "dos cosas muy buenas" for a newspaper.

The frost is playing old Harry with the South, towards Bahia Blanca. It is said that Mr. Gregory Soler looks on 20,000 of his sheep as already cold, stark and stiff mutton, as there is no grass for them, nor is any fresh camp to be had. Camp affairs look rather unpromising for the winter, and may spoil the next year's calculations of our balance-of-trade and excess-of-exports friends.

We hear that the concert is to be given by the Choral Union on Tuesday the 5th of next month.

We received yesterday from Mr. Sotomayor, of the well-known Portuguese book-store at 673 Calle Esmeralda, an addition to our library the benefits of which we are willing to share with those of our hard-up subscribers who are harmlessly mad on the subject of Stamp Collecting. We'll lend them the "Stamp Collector"; but they must not come in battalions, as we have on, only precious copy at their disposal. The best way, perhaps, is to go to Mr. Sotomayor and buy the book, as it would be a shock to us, in more ways than one, to find too many of our subscribers in straitened circumstances.

A tide-waiter in the Custom House has just contributed to keep the balance of trade on the right side by seizing 40,000 Italian cigars which some enterprising gentlemen tried to smuggle through the Custom House, offering him a share in the profits of the fraud. Not being an Italian, the official shares the holy horror entertained by the rest of mankind for Italian cigars, and is besides an honest man; so he informed his superiors and the whole thing burst up.

It is with profound sorrow that we have to record the death, from influenza, aggravated by disease of the lungs, of Miss Jennie Hunt, the gifted and highly accomplished Lady Directress of the School of Application in connection with the Normal School in Rosario, which sad event occurred on Sunday morning, after a few days' illness. Though always, since her coming to this city, some two years ago, in delicate health, the deceased lady was indefatigable in the discharge of her arduous public duties, and she had the satisfaction of seeing the numerous young ladies confided to her care make notable progress in their studies under her wise and experienced direction.—Herald.

We can lend the Age of Melbourne to say subscriber who takes an interest in our Australian cousins and their doings.

We have dates to May 13th from the still uncut Isthmus of Panamá. Colombia and Costa Rica are trying to settle their boundary dispute. Nicaragua is booming in the agricultural line; Costa Rica in gold mining. In Ecuador our old friend Colonel Tisdel, Chicago Exhibition Commissioner, is working it up so vigorously that the Secretary of War has detailed soldiers to distribute advertising matter concering the Exposition throughout that Republic. Col. Tisdel, reports that General Caamano is having the national band of the country, which is already remarkble for its excellence, placed under special training to increase its efficiency, as he intends to send it to Chicago in 1893. In Salvador they have improved a little in civilization by repealing the old and barbarous law of "cession for debts", by which a small debtor unable to pay could be ceded to the municipality by the soulless creditor. The Municipality had the power to doom the hapless debtor to wear the ball and chain, and thus hampered force him to work to free himself from the shameful bondage, occasioned more frequently by his misfortune rather than his crime.

The "Skating Novedades" Theatre will be opened to-night, M. Armand, the famous French skater, being the chief attraction. He intends to get up a competitive Skating Tournament. This is just the weather for it; and, apropos for reviving the rage for the amusement when it was first introduced here, years before the crisis of progress was dreamt of.

The President-elect celebrated his birthday anniversary on Tuesday, and we wish him many happy returns of the day.

A pork and beans dinner at Alfalfa went near "doing for" a number of persons there the other day. There was something wrong with either the pork or the beans, and the former is strongly suspected as accountable for the mishap.

"My brethren," said Swift, in a sermon, "there are three sorts of pride—birth, of riches, and of talents. I shall not now speak of the latter, none of which being subject to that abominable vice.

"Farewell" was the title of a poem sent to a newspaper; and the cruel editor, acknowledging its receipt, said, "It is a good thing that the gifted authoress has it good-bye, as she will never see again."

Hush! Hush! Hush! Here comes the Englishman!
Let's ask him how he manages to be spick and span,
And where he gets his collars, and shirts and ties and gloves,
With gaiters, and shilelagh too, which every masher loves!
The only place in all the town where you can find a store
Of such things is "The English" at Calle Cangallo, 5—9—4;
And there you'll light upon besides goods for boating men,
And socks and handkerchiefs and caps fit for the Upper Ten.
So hush, boys

Telegraphic Address—Ronald, Liverpool, Exchange Chambers, Bixteth Street, Liverpool, 19th Feb. 1892.
Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, June 22.

Gold ruled steady all morning, but the speculation was heavy and threatened to totter every moment. Thirteen thousand ounces changed hands; the price opened at $50.50, rose to 50.70, and closed at 50.60, say 211 ⅝ premium. One thousand sovereigns were sold at $15 65 to 15.70, say 211½ ⅝ premium. Speculators are quiet for the moment, waiting for eventualities to turn up at the month's settlement; the general opinion is that the settlement will come off in a falling market.

Patriotic Bonds were weak and dull; the price for the end of the month closed at 68¼, that for cash at 68.40. Internal Bonds fell to 62.30 for cash and 62½ for 30th. Catalinas fell to 9½. La Plata Cedulas were firmer in the vicinity of 32. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank rose to-day to 18, say 82 ⅝ discount.

Exchange was a shade firmer, but owing to the departure of the packet little or nothing was done, and rates remained nominal. Discounts were very easy.

We take the following from the River Plate Railway News of 18th inst:—

"The receipts of the seven principal Argentine Railways published this week on 3,895 miles of line, amount to £55,946, and for the corresponding week in 1891 the same lines earned £36,989 on a mileage of 3,159. The increased mileage for 1892 is 23·30 per cent and the increased earnings are 51·25 per cent.

"The average receipts per mile of the seven lines for the week are £14 17s. 3d. in 1892, against £11 14s. 2d. in 1891, an improvement of 26·70 per cent in the current year.

"The value of the £ sterling in 1891 was $19.86 compared with $16.33 in 1892, the improved value of currency in 1892 being 21·62 per cent. So that the enhanced value of the currency is accountable for 21·62 per cent of the higher earnings, and increased traffic for little over 5 per cent. This result cannot be considered unsatisfactory, notwithstanding the movement of traffic being only 5 per cent better than in 1891. Freighters doubtless held back their traffic in the expectation of something unforeseen happening to retard settlement of the Presidential question. This would have influenced the gold quotation and enabled them to command higher prices in currency for their produce. Now that the political horizon is quite clear, and all indications point to the probability of a lower gold rate, we anticipate there will be somewhat of a rush to dispose of produce before the quotation falls lower. The results may be expected to show themselves in the traffic receipts of the railways during the coming weeks.

"The receipts per mile of the several companies for the week exhibit the following results for 1892:—

	Increase p. cent
Central Argentine.....	68·38
Pacific.....	60·00
Argent. G. Western....	54·17
B. Ayres Western....	43·00
	Decrease p. cent
Great Southern.....	5·33
B. Ayres and Rosario....	3·50

We see by our London colleagues that the following passengers were booked last month to leave for the Plate by the following steamers:—

Per Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's steamer Clyde, to sail from Southampton June 21:—

"For Rio de Janeiro—Messrs. T. Woollkopf, H. Fussell, H. E. Cousans, H. K. Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. Worms, Mrs. Estill, Mr. E. B. Benest and child Mrs. F. L. Youle, child, and nurse, Mr. Versprennen and brother.

"For St. Vincent—Mr. F. W. Swiggs."

defeated for the second time; the bank, consulting its own interests, naturally stipulated that the term of delayed service was fixed up to date of that law: the Judge takes a different view of the case, and the Bank has to pay costs and accept payment in 'bonos' or 'cupones.' All debtors of the Mortgage Bank should bear this sentence in mind, otherwise they may be induced to pay in cash the service running since the passing of the law in question.

Mr Seitun, the popular Cedula King, is booked to leave for Italy on the 1st prox. He was entertained last night at a sumptuous farewell banquet at the Rebecchino in Calle Maipu. His numerous colleagues at the ring will miss his genial face in the Cedula nook; all wish him a prosperous voyage and speedy return.

The Government has approved the new reforms proposed in the regulation of the expenses of the Riachuelo Works. The Riachuelo service will in the future be divided into Direccion de las Obras, Control Administrativo, and Inspeccion Administrativo. The monthly expenses are fixed at $31,493 mpn.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank improved to 45% discount this morning. Those of the National Bank were nominal at 22% discount.

It is said that a National Deputy will present a Bill to convert the Banco de la Nacion into a State bank. The author of this happy idea is supposed to be a finance minister who once thought that he could permanently improve the value of paper currency by throwing on the market the little gold that guaranteed that currency. The market does not for a moment believe that the legislators will be so misled as to launch back into state banking. Little importance is attached in the hall to this rumored bill.

Exchange in Rio has fallen to 10½d. on London.

It is said that the packet left to-day with a large consignment of gold.

The Camara Sindical has accepted the invitation of the Argentine Committee to figure at the Chicago Exhibition. The Camara will send photographs of the building and statistical tables of the movement on Change.

Many operations in wool are spoken of since the beginning of the week in the leading barracas; all the purchases have been made for account of German firms. Dn. Carlos Fremery sold all the fine wools he held in deposit.

In the Plaza Constitucion and in the Central Produce Market the slight rise in gold has given some impetus to business in wool. In the former about ten thousand bags of wheat have been sold since Monday; this wheat was from the south of the province and fetched from $8 to $10 per 100 kilos for local consumption. Millers have also come forward and are operating on a large scale.

In the Central Produce Market over 50,000 bags of maize were discharged from the waggons yesterday, the day before and to-day; exports of maize continue on a heavy scale; prices are quoted at 5.30 to 5.50$ per 100 kilos in the Rio Santiago; about one hundred thousand bags have been sold up-river at 5.30$. Sellers of maize on contract, who are short of the article, offer to buy very heavy quantities to meet their engagements at 5$ m/n, but nobody will sell at the price.

There are at present in the Central Produce Market four hundred thousand bags of cereals; this figure gives an idea of what is going on. What would this market do without the Central Produce deposits? The maize and wheat would be rotting at the railway stations.

Large quantities of maize are being shipped from the Rio Santiago. The La Plata port is doing good service at present; it is a most important outlet for the shipment of cereals.

Large quantities of baled hay are being discharged from the trains at present at the Central Market. Good alfalfa is quoted at 3$ for consumo. Heavy quantities of flour are deposited in the Central Market and are shipped to Brazil and principally to Europe. The demand for Argentine flour in Europe dates from the Paris Exhibition; when Argentine flour carried off the highest prizes.

Potatoes are coming in freely; the supply is simply enormous and the quality is excellent. Potatoes are selling at 30 cents per 10 kilos. Onions are selling at 5 centavos the 'ristra'.

A colony has been started at Vicuña Mackenna station on the B. Ayres Pacific Railway: already 4,000 hectares of good land have been bought up by the new colonists, who have eight years to pay for their homesteads. The railway company has had the excellent idea of promoting the growth of the colony by granting to the colonists 50% reduction on fares and freight from the colony. The service of trains is excellent: you leave the Central Station at 9 p.m. and next day at 11 a.m. the colonist or visitor is in the colony. The land of the colony is very fertile and the situation is excellent: alfalfa fields last 40 years.

Over thirty thousand bags of wheat were taken out of waggons to-day at the Plaza Constitucion: this large quantity must be moved off to-morrow morning.

Cards were sent round to-day announcing that Sr. Don Juan Russell has taken over the general management of Bickert's Brewery Co., Ld.

Mr. Carlos Lix Klett, Inspector General of the Chicago Exhibition Committee, has received this week many valuable gifts in the shape of samples of special qualities of produce. In the Mercado Central de Frutos he collected fifty samples of yellow, "diente de caballo," and Turco maize of exceptional quality, from the North, West and South of the province of Buenos Ayres: these were generously given by consignees:—Devotto, Gallegos, Bachini and Co., Pegusano Hnos. y Repetto, Francisco Orcozen, Lebario Novva, Alonso and Co., Exequiel Belando, Ghiraldo Saenz & Co., Emilio Saenz, Saturnino Unzue é hijos, Silvestre Zoppi, Antonio Ojea, Griben & Co., Genaud Bembenuto, Martelli and Co., Bernardo Peluffo, Alberto Serantes, Andrea & Labro, Messrs. Tomkinson, Dungey & Co. presented four kilos of maize of exceptional condition, harvested in their farm La Blanqueada in the Partido Monte; this quality of maize gives a heavy yield. Mr Francisco Navarro sent to the Committee a splendid collection of Saldomé wheat, also Barleta, Hungarian and Russian qualities, from his colony Esther at Alfalfa Station on the Great Southern Railway. Messrs. Gmo. Kelsey & Co., the well-known consignees, sent a fine lot of yellow maize from the Olivera farm. The Inspector-General has collected over one hundred samples of exceptional Saldomé, Barleta, French, Hungarian, Russian, &c., wheat in the Plazas Central and Constitucion, gifts of Messrs Diego Ramsay, Chillado, Gonzalez and Co., Devotto, Gallegos, Balbiani & Co., Castro & Co., Pedro y Antonio Lanusse, Carlos Fremery, A. Leguineche é Hijo, Nerol y Aguirre, Ayarragaray y Capdepont, Enrique Bonifacio. Special mention must be made of a parcel of Chubut wheat presented by Messrs Andreu & Labrós; this lot, it may be remembered, fetched top price in the market for seed. Alfalfa samples have been forwarded by Mr. Ortiz de Zarate from Chivilcoy, black and white barley from Tandil and Chubut, osier from Mercedes, etc. etc., will complete the collection. Samples of canary seed have come from Azcuenago; it is calculated that the Republic consumes yearly two thousand tons of canary seed. Mr Francisco M. de Ibarra has presented to the committee five samples of black, white and red peas from his invernada in Navarro. The above merely gives a faint idea what is going on in the Chicago exhibition committee; thanks to the popularity of the Inspector General the Argentine exhibits of native produce will be complete. The collection is already acsuming formidable proportions. Mr. Six Klett is an old hand at this kind of thing and his experience of previous exhibitions is simply invaluable at present. Our American brothers will open their eyes when they see the collection of Argentine maize, wheat, and wool. Special attention is being paid to maize, as the United States is a great corn growing region.

The Goverument appointed to-day Dr Félix Suarez and Mr. Domingo Campana intervenors for the Transandine Railway and North-Western Argentine Railway from Villa Mercedes to La Rioja, respectively.

The R.M.S. Clyde left Rio this evening and will arrive at La Plata on Sunday morning.

The gold market ruled hard at the second ring; ounces closed at $50.80, say 212 13/16 premium, and sovereigns at $15.73, say 212½ premium. Patriotic bonds fell on the strength of the rumor that the Government would return the subscription of the public for the capital of the new bank: this rumor put the stock down to 67.80 and put up the price of gold. Internal bonds fell to 61.80. La Plata Cedulas were firm.

PHOSPHATIC
BAKING POWDER
BARON LIEBIG, the world renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea or yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this!"

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
